

College of Education
Data Glossary

1. Academic Year: includes three semesters: Summer, Fall, and Spring, in that order.
2. Admitted Students: refers to the number of students who have completed the application process, have met the admissions criteria, and have been formally admitted to one of the College's degree programs.
3. Applications Received: refers to the number of students who have applied for admissions into one of the College's degree programs.
4. CIP: refers to the Classification of Instructional Program. The CIP was developed by the US Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics as a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions. Instructional programs are classified by a six-digit CIP code at the most granular level and are classified according to the two-digit and four-digit prefixes of the code.
5. Degrees Awarded: refers to the number of degrees conferred during an academic year. In order for a degree to be conferred, a student must have successfully met all graduation requirements for a given program.
6. Enrolled Students: refers to the number of students who have followed through on having been admitted to a degree program and have enrolled in at least a one-credit hour course.
7. Grad I: refers to Master's degree seeking students.
8. Grad II: refers to Doctoral and Educational Specialists degree seeking students.
9. Headcounts: refers to the number of students who have for a given semester enrolled in at least a one-credit course for that semester.
10. Lower: refers to undergraduate students who are completing the first 60 credit hours of the uniform core curriculum.
11. Upper: refers to undergraduate students who have completed the first 60 credit hours of the uniform core curriculum and are taking program specific courses.