

Bachelor of Arts in Natural & Applied Sciences At A Glance

The B.A. in Natural and Applied Sciences allows students the ability to integrate courses from the physical, biological, and applied sciences. This degree provides students who have diverse interests in the areas of STEM an exciting opportunity to complete a degree combining courses from a variety of departments and to develop an array of skills that will be effective at problem-solving, critical thinking, and oral and written communication.

Prerequisites:

This major does not have any prerequisites.

Career Opportunities:

- Water Conservation Specialist
- Soil Conservation Manager
- Forestry & Conservation Technician
- Resource Specialist
- Biological Technician
- Precision Agriculture Technician
- Remote Sensing Scientist/technologist
- Quality Control Analyst/Project Manager
- Science Teacher
- Environmental Lobbyist
- Environmental Policy Analyst
- Forensic Technician
- Parks Naturalist
- Clinical Research Coordinator
- Research Technician/Scientist

Minors/Certificates:

Students will work with their assigned academic advisor to discuss the addition of minors and/or certificates relevant to their career or graduate school goals.

Advising Contact:

Center for Advising & Student Success

MMC: ZEB 210 | (305) 348-2978

BBC: AC1 300 | (305) 919-5859

Helpful Links:

CASE Advising: <http://caseadvising.fiu.edu/>

My Major Website: <https://mymajor.fiu.edu/browse/370NAPSCIBA>

College Requirements:

- All majors in the college must complete 45 credits of upper division prior to graduation. Upper division courses are 3000/4000 level courses, major courses and outside electives can count towards this requirement.
- No 1 and 2-credit physical activity courses can be counted towards the 120 credits needed for graduation.