

Psychology Minor

The Department of Psychology program equips students with a solid grounding in scientific research and human behavior, along with skills in critical thinking and problem-solving techniques. The minor in Psychology provides a background knowledge of psychological theories and practices for students pursuing majors in other fields. Students focus in one of five key subdisciplines: experimental, social, applied, personality/abnormal and developmental.

Required Courses:

- This program requires 15 approved upper-division (3000-4000 level) psychology credits.

Coursework Areas Include:

CLP	Clinical Psychology
CYP	Community Psychology
DEP	Developmental Psychology
EAB	Experimental Analysis of Behavior
EXP	Experimental Psychology
INP	Industrial & Applied Psychology
PPE	Personality
PSY	Psychology
PSB	Psychobiology
SOP	Social Psychology

Total credits required: 15

Additional Information:

- Grade of “C” or better is required for all completed courses.
- Special Note: PSY 2012 does not count towards the minor, however, it may be a pre-requisite for many of the upper division courses.
- The following courses do not count as coursework towards the minor: PSY 3213, EDP 3004, and Senior Lab.
- The following courses are not recommended to meet minor requirements: PSY 3024, PSY 3211, PSY 3215, and PSY 4931.

For more information and to view a list of courses please consult the Undergraduate Catalog.